PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The “Equal Play” project is a Training Course (TC) that aims to foster social inclusion through sport by providing innovative tools for youth workers to promote the values of equality, diversity, and accessibility in sports activities. Through the participation of young people from Spain, Greece, Serbia, Portugal, and Ukraine the project focuses on removing barriers that have historically limited the participation of certain groups in the sports field, especially people with disabilities, minorities, and young people at risk of social exclusion.

OBJECTIVES

OUTPUT

the project will enhance the development of competencies among youth workers by equipping them with inclusive methodologies and practical strategies

the project enables the participants to design and facilitate adapted sports activities, furthermore, the project promotes equitable access to Paralympic, adapted, and minority sports disciplines.
